Good morning Esther,

Sorry to hear about your pregnancy, both of my daughters have recently had difficult pregnancies however saw both of my newest Grand-babies on Sunday, times may feel hard but they are well worth the effort and pain.

My apologies, I have not sent all the receipts nor been able to change your name yet, the plan manager has been a little slow in getting the first one paid. Once that has been paid, I can then change your name and get the others paid for you.

I will contact Canine Helpers and organise the service agreement as required.

I can set up a 1 hour shift each week to water your plants, bring in any mail and keep the house tidy.

I will see what is happening with the lawn guy, however feel we may need to move over to Pirate to complete the lawns every 3 weeks to ensure they are kept up-to-date and tidy ready for when you get home.

Please do not hesitate in contacting me if you require anything at all.

Warm Regards,
Matthew Breen

Hi Matt,

I just wanted to update you on what is happening with me.

I have had to go to Brisbane as there are complications with the pregnancy and they are not sure how much longer I will be able to carry the Bub. So it is looking like I will be in Brisbane for a couple of months staying with my parents in Forest Lake.

While I am away is it possible to get someone to mow my lawn and water my plants once a week. I know that there was an issue with the yard man's mower but I still haven't had anyone to mow the lawn, luckily a friend mowed it for me last weekend.

I was also thinking that seeing as I am in Brisbane would it be possible to sort out a service agreement with Canine Helpers so that I can continue Jess' training while I am down here. I figured they would be the best as they are going to be the ones to conduct her PAT test.

Lastly, would you mind letting me know where things are with the invoices I sent in? Did you manage to get my name changes and the invoices reimbursed? I haven't seen anything on my end, if that helps.

If you have time later in the week I wouldn't mind catching up with you over the phone about baby monitors and the like, seeing as we may have less time than we thought to get that all sorted.

Many Thanks

Esther Hohenheim
